DESCRIPTION

Located at walking distance from the picturesque fisher village of Massa Lubrense and ten kilometres from Sorrento, this villa is an oasis to escape from everyday life; private woods, a secret lemon garden with the trees intricately intertwined and manicured gardens with many furnished shaded areas surround the villa providing privacy and tranquillity.

The villa can accommodate up to eighteen guests in seven suites. A separate building in the garden serves as a central area for the guests to gather together and offers a very spacious dining and sitting area.

Inside, the bedrooms are a wise combination of modern and antique furniture, with contemporary design objects and objects of historic significance. Outside, the property can be best appreciated, with stunning views of the entire Gulf of Naples and sights of the island of Capri from the lush garden and many terraces. The outdoor kitchen, the great al fresco dining area and the superbly positioned pool overlooking the coast will make your stay a memorable one. Its easy-care, its modern amenities, the very generous outdoor space, and the breathtaking views make Goodyear the perfect vacation retreat.
