The outdoor area also features a generous al fresco dining area with barbecue.

With large windows creating a luminous and airy atmosphere dominated by light colors, the ground floor of the villa boasts a generous open-plan living and dining area. The villa can accommodate six guests in three comfortable double bedrooms with en-suite bathroom with shower. Designed to provide an undisturbed night's sleep, the rooms are spread over two floors. On the ground floor you will find one bedroom complete with en-suite bathroom, while on the upper floor you will find two bedrooms with en-suite bathroom. Situated in the Marine Protected Area of Plemmirio, this newly-built villa provides a unique escape for to explore this diverse region which is home to Baroque towns, excellent food and some of the most beautiful beaches in Sicily. Villa Grove is just a stone's throw from Syracuse, which encapsulates Sicily's timeless beauty more than any other city: ancient Greek ruins rise out of lush citrus orchards, café tables spill onto dazzling Baroque piazzas, and honey-hued medieval side streets lead down to the sparkling blue sea.

The villa is also a few kilometers from Noto, a spectacular Baroque city and an architectural paradise with one of the most beautiful historic centers in Sicily. Renowned as the Capital of Baroque and also a UNESCO World Heritage Site, Noto is perched on a plateau overlooking the Asinaro valley, covered by citrus, olive and almond trees. In less than one hour by car, you can reach Marzamemi, a fishing village long known for good seafood, its ancient core home to shoals of restaurants, bars and boutiques.

In just one hour by car, you can reach Modica, damaged in the 1963 earthquake and rebuilt in the Sicilian Baroque style: its highlight is the 18th-century Church of San Giorgio, which dominates the upper town. Attractions in the lower town include the Chiesa del Carmine, the Baroque San Pietro, and the Palazzo de Leva. The villa is also one-hour drive from Catania, one of the most picturesque towns in Sicily: its historic center is a UNESCO-listed wonder, where black and white palazzi tower over sweeping Baroque piazzas.

The villa is a few kilometers from Scicli, the most authentic and relaxed of the Val di Noto's Baroque towns. Its relatively compact historic center is awash with cultural sights, from beautiful churches and aristocratic palazzi to eclectic museums and a time-warped apothecary. Full of artistic treasures and delicacies for the palate, Sicily is also famous for its balmy beaches. Traveling along its spectacular coastline, visitors will come across the sandy beaches of Arenella, Fanusa, Fontane Bianche and Ognina.
