DESCRIPTION

The villa is built right next to a well-trimmed olive grove giving it not only air to breathe in the immaculate beauty of the area but also a genuine Cretan touch to your days and nights here.

A two-storey home that is flooded with bright natural light throughout bedazzles with its immaculate style and discerning taste. As soon as you step your foot into the villa, a bright, voluminous open-plan space with an ample living room encircled by floor-to-ceiling frame windows will unfold in front of you.

Facing the swimming pool, the adjacent olive grove, and the sea in the background, this is a first taste of the unsurpassed stay experience the villa offers. On the other part of this room, a well-appointed dining area and the villa's minimal kitchen with a kitchen island and high chairs are found. This floor also hosts a master en-suite bedroom and a double one that can be turned into a twin bedroom.

Going up through the internal staircase you will find another master en-suite bedroom and a double one featuring the same chic aesthetics and clean ambiance of the entire house. All bedrooms offer COCO-MAT bedding and all necessary accessories to make your stay comfortable and carefree.

Right in front of the main part of the house, an astounding large infinity pool flirts with the rim of the property where a well-manicured patio of herbs and indigenous plants is found. Its exquisite design with a small, planted patio and a lounging area submerged on the side of the pool, will make it almost impossible to leave this part of the house. Surrounding comfy cushioned loungers, an ample dining area with barbeque, shaded lounging spots and sitting areas adorn the otherwise minimal garden of the villa.
