DESCRIPTION

Located on an approximately five-kilometre distance from the town of Casole d' Elsa, while Siena, San Gimignano and Monteriggioni are reachable by car within forty minutes, three unique destinations to visit at least once in your life.

Henlein is surrounded by a beautiful panoramic garden with a 360-degree view, joy for the eyes of those who contemplate the beauty of the hills of this part of Tuscany. The property has twelve hectares of land in total where guests can walk throughout the woods, vineyards and olives trees. All six bedrooms are equipped with air conditioning, four bedrooms are located in the main villa, one in the guest house facing the swimming pool, about sixty meters from the main villa, while the annex located next to the main villa offers the last bedroom.

The interiors are furnished in an eclectic way with a mix of various Mediterranean styles. The exterior has well-kept spaces, with corners where you can have your privacy from the rest of the group. The infinity swimming pool emphasizes the panorama, while the porch, with its furnished area to eat under the stars, together with the living room, are the most lived-in area of the whole house during the summer.
