DESCRIPTION

This spectacular mansion with uninterrupted sea views is accessed via a driveway leading to an open carport. On the ground floor there is a guest cloakroom and a fully equipped kitchen with a sensational u-shaped central island with incorporated seating and a dining table. The formal dining room and generous lounge have a stylish yet relaxed décor with views of the central courtyard and fountain. Just behind the main kitchen there is a secondary kitchen with stairs down to the lower level which has a laundry room and an independent staff entrance. Back on the ground floor, the west wing comprises a large living room with a beautiful flame effect fireplace and patio doors leading to the covered porch overlooking the pool and garden. There is also a guest bedroom suite with an ensuite bathroom and independent access. A large office with a fireplace and private bathroom, which could easily be used as an additional bedroom suite, completes the ground floor.

The upper level has three further bedroom suites with sea views, and the master bedroom which boasts a private lounge and large dressing room.

The lower floor houses a gym with sliding patio doors, a fantastic home cinema room, and another bedroom suite. Underneath the carport there is a separate staff apartment with a bedroom, ensuite bathroom and kitchenette.

No expense was spared in creating this stunning brand new Andalusian-style villa. Exquisitely designed and decorated, with jaw-dropping views that stretch down towards the Costa del Sol, across the Mediterranean and on to northern Africa, this residence affords the ultimate in luxury, privacy and elegance. With its exclusive location in the hills and deluxe but welcoming ambience, Villa Howell is a great choice for a family looking to spend quality time together on vacation.
