DESCRIPTION

The olive green walls of the building blend in with the luxurious surrounding foliage and perfectly manicured gardens. There are wrought iron tables and chairs on the outside terrace, creating the perfect place to enjoy your orange juice in the morning or a sun downer in the evening.

The turquoise swimming pool is perhaps one of the estate's most impressive features; with stunning views of the palaces in the distance, the rippling pool and its surrounding sun beds will be a place you will easily find yourself stuck. Meandering streams, avenues of ancient trees, and views of the mystical mountains make this place an unforgettable stay.

The interiors are done up in a traditional and classy style, with plush velvet sofas and thick rugs covering the wooden floors in the two sitting rooms. The bedrooms are comfortable and chic, with exquisite wooden furniture and large shuttered windows. The bathrooms are modern and spacious, with power showers intact. There are offices fitted throughout the house with wooden desks and sofas for those who need to get their heads down during their stay.
