Villa Jackdaw

The Seafront Manor is a frontline villa, located on a premier coastal road of the Cascais Riviera. The Villa is architecturally stunning, built in the 'Portuguese Style' popularised by the renowned architect, Raul Lino. The house was designed and built in 1923 by Gonalo and Jos  de Mello Breyner for Frederico Guillermo d'Orey.

DESCRIPTION

The main entrance to the house is reached by ornate stone stairs that centres on the beautifully symmetrical front façade. The ground floor entrance leads into a beautiful wood panelled entrance hall with doors leading off to a spacious and well equipped kitchen and a large living and dining room. An incredible terrace wraps around the living areas, providing covered shade beneath a beautiful colonnade and sun drenched areas beyond, perfect for al fresco dining and soaking up the unspoilt sea views.

An ornate wooden staircase leads you to the first floor where you can find four en suite bedrooms with the master room privileged with two sides of glass leading to a covered terrace and exceptional sea views. The Attic has been converted to a further en suite bedroom. The basement of the house is comprised of the garage and very spacious staff quarters.

A swimming pool set in the well manicured garden completes this wonderful Villa promising a truly unique stay in Cascais on the Portuguese Riviera.
