DESCRIPTION

La Zagaleta spreads across 900 hectares of beautiful natural surroundings yet is just a 15-minute drive from Marbella. The private estate housing over 200 of the most exclusive and state-of-the-art homes in southern Europe, is renowned for its extremely generous private plots and dazzling views of the Mediterranean Sea and Andalusian countryside. The resort's many luxury facilities, including two superb golf courses, a clubhouse, an equestrian centre and a racquet club, are made available to Marbella Mountain Resorts clients.

Entering the gated residence, the palm trees stand to attention as you make your way into the magnificent double height entrance hall, with its beautiful vaulted ceiling, ornate double staircase, candle-style chandelier and antique furniture. Dark wood doors lead into a classically furnished living room, with polished wooden floors and an inviting open hearth. From here, French doors open onto a covered outdoor lounge area, where you can relax on cosy wicker chairs and daybeds and marvel at the picture-perfect view.

The vaulted ceiling and antique style continue into the formal dining room and the library/TV room, both with French doors leading to the garden. Off the library, there is the enchanting Andalusian patio, with traditional patterned tiles and a charming water feature adding an extra layer of charm to this wonderful home.

The large shaker-style kitchen is fully equipped with top brand appliances and has a breakfast bar and patio doors leading to the garden.

Villa Keeble has five bedrooms, all with generous ensuite bathrooms and with simple comfortable interior décor, punctuated by graceful chandeliers and choice antique pieces. Three are on the ground floor, and the two Master Suites are upstairs, with their own private terraces. A striking feature on this floor is the large steam room where you can relax and recover from the stresses of modern life.

Outside, the large mature landscaped gardens are a true oasis where you can take a dip in the swimming pool, lounge on the sun terraces, or sit in the shade of the palapa whilst the children have fun in the playground. The villa's southwestern orientation provides the best seats in the house when it comes to watching the spectacular sunsets.

From its sophisticated blend of upscale furnishings and rich antiques to its casual cosiness and plush seating, every detail at Villa Keeble has been carefully curated to create a luxury residence that exudes refined charm and character and ensures comfort and well-being. This exquisite home, with its prime location and enviable vistas, is the perfect choice for family or friends looking to create treasured holiday memories.
