DESCRIPTION

This stunning unique Villa has an outdoor swimming pool, hand painted details on the walls and ceilings, historical Portuguese tiles, and various luxurious spaces. A place to truly unwind.

The villa is great to share with friends or family and there is enough room (both inside and outside) to keep everyone entertained.

During the 20th century

Estoril became a famous region for exiled kings and spies in the Second World War (WWII). These secret and underhand negotiations were played out in the grand Casino, still working nowadays where you can enjoy shows, restaurants and try your luck!

There are incredible beaches in Estoril and surrounding

The picturesque town of Cascais is a short drive away and the fantastic and mystical village of Sintra with its glorious palaces can easily be accessed from Estoril as well.
