DESCRIPTION

Set over two levels, this sublime 6-bedroom villa seamlessly blends the outdoor landscape with the indoor spaces, boasting an unspoilt view of the sea and verdant coast. The villa provides the perfect retreat and a classic Mediterranean escape in the lush hills of the emerald island of Greece, Corfu.

Spread over 1,000 square metres, the villa can host up to 12 guests in seven bedrooms, including two master bedrooms all with private terraces and ocean-facing views. All bedrooms feature en-suite bathrooms and dressing-rooms.

Guests will be greeted with a spacious living area, unspoilt views of the azure waters and the horizon throughout the villa. The large floor to ceiling windows open onto an expansive wraparound terrace, providing an exceptional indoor-outdoor living experience.

The two 20 meter sea-facing infinity pools are complete with waterfalls and act as the crowning feature of the property, offering mesmerizing views of the coastline. Situated on separate tiers of the terrace, yet located just steps away from each other, the pools offer guests the chance to socialise, host events or enjoy the tranquillity of the Ionian sea.

In true Mediterranean style, food takes centre stage. The American style fully equipped kitchen comes with an island and open space, perfectly designed for socialising with family and friends over dinners and offering access to the outdoors.

The villa includes two outdoor lounges and a dining area, perfect for enjoying sundowners and Mediterranean feasts with the striking view of the Ionian sunset as a backdrop.
