DESCRIPTION

This is one of the most forward-thinking and modern properties in Porto Heli, featuring a mesmerizing setting with fine architecture, intriguing manicured gardens nuanced by interesting art installations and a plethora of private swimming pools elevating the level of available luxury amenities. The grand plot size, yet the attention of even the tiniest detail concerning the design and comfort of the villa, define the essence of the living experience offered here. The omnipresence of the sea at the front, provides for the most stunning backdrop and blends in perfectly with the flat design of the property facing it.

The various volumes respond to different accommodation needs, while they perfectly complement each other to provide one of the most diverse yet fulfilled luxury residences. Without a doubt, this property has been conceived to bring together family, host friends from around the world and become home to some of the most distinguished and refined summer memories for very discerned guests, who appreciate fine taste, immaculate living standards and great entertainment. From the private volume with sharp minimal design and numerous guest suites and the stunning, beautifully eccentric master suite, which celebrates opulence and expresses a deep admiration of the feminine beauty through its hand-picked art, up to the most conventional "family volume" and finally, the one-of-a-kind central entertainment building, magnetizing all common activities, everything has been masterfully designed to enchant the most demanding and spoiled guest while entertaining the most wonderful crowds as a collective.

The property consists of 4 independent volumes and three private swimming pools.
