Luxury Villa Living

Villa Mil

This splendid residence, which dates back to 1400, is located in the heart of the Tuscan countryside, between Florence and Siena and is an ideal place for those who love peace and quiet, being surrounded by nature, and living the atmosphere of the times gone by.
In fact, the villa still preserves all its ancient charm, thanks to the attentive and meticulous restoration work which has just recently been completed. The interiors have been elegantly and tastefully furnished and particular attention has been given to every detail.
