DESCRIPTION

This villa is in a truly exceptional location. Just over a one hour drive from Lisbon, the village is famous for its port on stilts, a truly unique site that adds a feeling of historical charm to the place.

The villa has a nice countryside feel to it that will create the feeling of being on holiday you are seeking. Overlooking some of Comporta's rice fields, the house boasts many outdoor areas for you and your guests to enjoy, including a deliciously inviting pool with smart wooden flooring around its edge. The house has a veranda around it, offering plenty of shade at all hours of the day, and beneath this are seating areas, a hammock and outdoor sunbeds. The main dining table is also situated here, but partly set behind some glass, meaning it can be used all year round and that the wonderful views can always be enjoyed.

The inside of the villa has a wonderful boho chic charm to it that feels completely authentic and unapologetically unique.

The main living room features décor from all over the globe, with an Aztec-style rug in blues, Moroccan-type poufs and a distressed aquamarine wardrobe. These leads open plan onto the dining table, which is also shabby chic style. The feeling of the house is at once homely and exotic, with splashes of colour everywhere. An indoor fireplace and television also feature in the living room. The four bedrooms are done up similarly if a little less vibrant, with white bed throws and hard marble flooring. The bathrooms are modern and sleek, with huge overhead showers and traditional tiling around the sink mirrors. Outdoors, there is an outhouse with an extra bedroom, mini kitchen and bathroom.
