DESCRIPTION

Vale do Lobo Designer Villa Overview

This Vale do Lobo villa, designed by renowned architect Vasco Vieira, sits centrally within walking distance of the beach, golf course, tennis, restaurants, and a supermarket. Its contemporary architecture, high-end finishes, and designer furnishings create a stunning and unique holiday home.

Ground Floor Living Areas

The generously sized ground floor features an open-plan kitchen with a five-meter island, a double-height dining area, and a 60 m² lounge with a flat-screen TV, see-through fireplace, and feature slate wall topped by a glass ceiling. Retractable sliding windows disappear into the slate wall, seamlessly connecting the interior to terraces, garden, and pool.

Outdoor Kitchen & Pool

The covered outdoor kitchen includes a high-spec BBQ, burner, and drinks fridge, perfect for al-fresco dining. The landscaped tropical garden surrounds the 15-meter heated pool, complete with electric safety cover, toddler area, and shallow sunbathing section. The poolside sundeck and sunken seating areas provide ample space for lounging and enjoying long summer evenings.

Bedrooms & Terraces

On the first floor, the master suite features a super king-size bed, en-suite bathroom, dressing room, balcony terrace, and golf course views. Three additional en-suite bedrooms with king-size beds have balconies overlooking the garden and golf course. On the ground floor, two more en-suite bedrooms with king-size beds offer walk-in wardrobes and private terraces. All double beds (except the master) can convert to twins.

Roof Terrace & Entertainment

The 180 m² roof terrace provides 360-degree views of golf, hills, and the distant sea. It includes a five-meter dining and roof bar, shaded seating, and a sundeck for serious sunbathers. The villa also features a 4K Atmos home cinema, an entertainment zone with a pool table and luxury bar, and a Technogym-equipped gym. A smart sound system covers all terraces, the garden, and every room.
