DESCRIPTION

A Boutique Country Estate in Val di Noto

Villa Ottaviano is part of a restored Sicilian estate set across six hectares of unspoilt countryside. The architecture blends traditional materials such as Noto stone with contemporary design, creating a natural connection to the surrounding landscape. While the estate feels private and secluded, it is located in the heart of south-eastern Sicily, close to some of the region's most important cultural and natural sites.

Rooms & Suites

Villa Ottaviano features five individually designed rooms and suites, each created with natural materials, soft tones, and minimalist interiors. Every suite includes en-suite bathrooms, Wi-Fi, air conditioning, and private outdoor spaces such as terraces or gardens. In addition, select suites offer larger living areas or kitchen facilities, making them suitable for couples, families, or small groups seeking extended stays.

Outdoor Spaces: Infinity Pool & Gardens

At the centre of the estate is a panoramic saltwater infinity pool overlooking the Sicilian countryside and distant sea views. The pool area is designed for relaxation, with sun terraces, loungers, and open views across the landscape. Moreover, the estate includes gardens, walking paths, and natural spaces surrounded by olive and almond trees, creating a calm and immersive environment.

Organic Restaurant & Estate Living

Villa Ottaviano features an on-site organic restaurant serving seasonal, locally sourced cuisine prepared with ingredients from the estate, including olives, almonds, and citrus fruits. Not only does the dining experience focus on fresh local produce, but it also reflects a zero-kilometre philosophy rooted in Sicilian tradition.

Wellness & Experiences

The estate is designed as a wellness-focused retreat, offering yoga, relaxation spaces, and holistic experiences that encourage rest and balance. Whether you prefer complete relaxation or gentle activity, Villa Ottaviano is designed to support a slower, more mindful way of living.

Location & Discover Sicily

Villa Ottaviano is located in the Val di Noto, one of Sicily's most culturally rich regions. From the estate, guests can explore nearby destinations such as Noto, the Vendicari Nature Reserve, and Syracuse. In other words, the villa combines countryside privacy with easy access to beaches, culture, and UNESCO listed towns.
