DESCRIPTION

This is certainly an ideal family home - Interior and exterior spaces alike exude the quintessence of Provence lifestyle.

Within the villa itself, the living rooms and dining areas provide gorgeous open spaces. The large open kitchen on the eastern side of the home has everything one could desire and is an absolute dream for a family or professional chef alike.

The garden spaces are equally impressive, with private tennis court, terrain de boules and a heated swimming pool, surrounded by lush greenery. Guests enjoy hours of relaxation on the numerous terraces - each offering the same comfort and sophistication found within the home.

Beside the main house sits a spacious game room with ping pong table which is fully air-conditioned - a haven for those looking for privacy or intimacy, teenagers, or older guests looking to get away a bit.

A “Petite Maison” nearby on the same property is occupied by a very discreet and dedicated couple of guardians who take care of the house and the maintenance of gardens and pool. They are available if needed, and also treat privacy for guests of upmost importance.

The home can also offer two additional bedrooms for personnel or teens with a different standard of comfort.

Please note that due to tiered gardens, this property is less suitable for young children; parents please take added caution when reserving.
