DESCRIPTION

Exuding timeless beauty, the exterior of Villa Poppy I is a luxurious embodiment of modern architecture, framed by expansive glass walls and perched amidst vibrant flower gardens. This lush outdoor oasis spans two hectares, featuring a verdant croquet lawn, a badminton court, and shaded seating areas for leisurely repose. Amid the groves of citrus, fig, pomegranate, apple, and olive trees, a 40 square meter yoga platform unfurls, offering a secluded, serene setting for weddings, receptions, or a tranquil yoga session enveloped by lavender fields.

Stepping inside Villa Poppy I, you are greeted by an air of sophistication. The stunningly designed interior is accentuated by a collection of artistic marvels, ranging from Roman amphorae and a mid-century vase collection to intriguing space probe photographs by Michael Benson and captivating works by Zagreb's renowned abstract painter, Vatroslav Kulis. The villa is graced with curated designer pieces, such as furniture from de Padova, Denise Milano, Flos, Kartell, Vitra, and Davide Groppi, lending an air of refined elegance to the living spaces.

Each of the six suites offers a tranquil retreat adorned with lavish furnishings and private bathrooms. The communal spaces - a gourmet dine-in kitchen, a formal dining room, a well-stocked library, and a dramatic living room with a fireplace and moon chandelier - invite gatherings and moments of shared joy. The villa also boasts a 22x5 meter negative edge lap pool and jacuzzi, a fully equipped gym, a sauna, and a private wine cellar, ensuring a leisurely and luxurious stay.
