DESCRIPTION

From the moment you arrive, everything feels intentional. You walk through tropical gardens and archways, past velvet sofas, cozy corners, and even a 200-year-old grand piano. Every detail feels relaxed but refined. There are two pools: one perfect for lazy afternoons with your group, and another on the upper level, connected to the master suite, with beautiful views of the trees and sky.

Whether you're spending the morning in the paddle court, the afternoon in the plunge pool, or simply enjoying a chef-prepared dinner outdoors, Rae's is all about slowing down and soaking it all in. It's peaceful, beautifully styled, and designed for travelers who want a private retreat with a real sense of place.
