DESCRIPTION

Created to offer indulging privacy, this one of a kind villa is a fine blend of high-end features and design, combined with traditional accents and quality local materials. Scorpion is a state of mind; a space dedicated to unpretentious living, a place to feel at home, to meet with loved ones and get in touch with the eternal spirit of Greek hospitality.

With its name inspired by its beautiful surroundings, the sea, the sky and the earthy colored island stones, Scorpion creates a connection with the island's character, its untamed soul and traditional spirit that keeps evolving.

Overlooking the laced coastline of Agios Fokas in Tinos and the Aegean Sea, Scorpion offers a rare feeling of freedom that flows from the light filled interiors to the lavish exterior areas of the villa. Created to combine privileged views and complete privacy, Scorpion unfolds in three levels that compose an indulging villa, fully embracing a luxurious hospitality philosophy. Each level of the villa is a white canvas, highlighting the signature sea views and using a playful geometry to allow a visual flow among the spaces. Wood, stone, and concrete, set the tone for the minimal ambience of Scorpion, that features a soft greeze palette and built-in elements that reflect deep island roots.

The villa's private outdoor spaces unfold in 300 m2 premises, that include a relaxing lounge area with umbrellas and chaises lounges that frame beautifully the exterior pool, dining area designed for 12 guests, a Jacuzzi, shaded terraces and balconies oriented towards the sea.
