DESCRIPTION

The Villa offers island-chic interiors, spacious exteriors and an one-of-a-kind luscious garden rarely found on Mykonos Island. While preserving traditional Cycladic architectural elements, Villa Unagi is equipped with a cutting-edge smart house technology.

Featuring 3 separate guest houses, the main house and its very own private chapel, this luxury property offers 8 beautifully furnished bedrooms, each with its own private bathroom and can accommodate up to 20 guests.

The generous outdoor space offers a large 'beach style' pool, a covered lounge area, two covered dining areas and many hide-aways to enjoy private moments. The wood stove barbecue and a traditional stone-built oven, surrounded by the large outdoor area is the perfect place to enjoy lazy summer afternoons, eating and drinking with friends and family.

The Main House includes spacious living areas, a fully-equipped kitchen, 4 bedrooms each with private bathrooms and an ultra-luxurious master suite on the top level with a balcony and two terraces with mesmerising views and a stone-built bath.

The Garden Guest House (55 m2) accommodates up to four guests and features a bedroom with a private bathroom, a small living area, a kitchen with fridge and its own private terrace with beautiful bougainvillea.

The Vineyard Guest House takes its name from the private vineyard in front of it and features a bedroom, private bathroom and kitchenette, offering a close to nature one-of-a-kind experience.

Rock elements and impressive panoramic views are found in the Church Guest House. It provides a bedroom, a kitchenette and a stunning bath featuring a rock.
