DESCRIPTION

Tatiana Bilbao is one of the most prestigious young Mexican Architects, whose works (including VALHALLA , of course!!) have been shown recently at the famous Louisiana Museum of Modern Art in Denmark and the SFMoMA in San Francisco. She has been invited to give lecture at several of the top universities, such as Harvard, Columbia and Rice, among others. Also has been highlighted in several international publications such as the New York Times, Monocle, and more.

The house has spectacular 180° views of Banderas Bay, from Puerto Vallarta to Cabo Corrientes & the Marietas Islands, allowing the guests to constantly have sightings of whales, dolphins, and other fauna. It also has direct access to a private beach and is located between rock breaks within the “Windy Tunnel” area, making it a great hotspot for Surfing and kite Surfing. Guests will have access to the W Beach Club located only 3 minutes away on the spectacular white sand Veneros Beach.
