DESCRIPTION

This high-end vacation home available to rent is set in beautiful grounds with a private gate leading directly to the beach. The interior space includes a large open plan living and dining room, a fully equipped kitchen, and seven generous bedrooms, including a sumptuous master suite.

What sets this exclusive and private hideaway apart is its authentic Andalusian style, natural splendour and spectacular setting. With its modern twist on rustic charm and stylish but relaxed setting, the estate provides a perfect retreat to unwind from the busyness of modern life and a wonderful place to celebrate special occasions or host family and friends.

The interior of the house is the perfect fusion of contemporary art and traditional Andalusian style with chic Mexican and Balinese accents. On the ground floor, there is an open-plan living room with a formal dining area seating up to 14 people, as well as an informal sitting room with a huge flatscreen TV and a log burner. The spacious living areas can comfortably accommodate large gatherings with doors that open onto the terraces overlooking the sea. The fully equipped galley kitchen feeds into a large decked covered terrace for alfresco dining, complete with an outdoor kitchen and bar. Off the kitchen there is an office.

Villa Ventura boasts seven ensuite bedrooms, including a studio apartment on the ground floor with independent access. For the more active, you can work out a sweat in the gym or strike your yoga poses all whilst gazing out at the sea. There's also a games room for those who enjoy a round of pool with a view.

The villa is surrounded by verdant gardens gently sloping down to Playa de Los Alemanes, one of the best beaches in Spain. The superb pool adds a final flourish to what is truly an impressive property.

Villa Ventura is within easy reach of the luxury Blue Zahara Beach Hotel, where you can relax in the spa, or have a cocktail in the terrace bar before taking a stroll to the old town for dinner.
