DESCRIPTION

The structure consists of a seventeenth-century tower where on the ground floor are the living and dining room, a fully equipped kitchen and the TV room. On the first floor of the tower, there are two double bedrooms both with en suite bathroom. The other four double bedrooms do all have an independent entrance from the garden and are set a few meters away from the main building. Two of these bedrooms can be connected to each other, creating a two-bedroom suite ideal for families with small children.

Outdoors, Villa Whitney offers many facilities: there is a dreamy lounge area shaded by elegant curtain sails, a very large terrace perfect for enjoying unforgettable sunsets, an outdoor dining area, a fitness building, a private swimming pool as well as a lovely old trullo called Paiara, just perfect for romantic aperitifs.

Villa Whitney is an extraordinary place: the attention to details, the comfort, peace, and luxury make this holiday villa the perfect setting for a relaxing experience with family and friends. Upon request, it is possible to rent the eighteen meters Yacht of the property for a day and explore the Salentine coast and its splendid beaches.

Every single corner of the villa has been designed to offer a special feeling of well being and serenity, starting from the bedrooms all designed to find the cosiness and comfort of a home. Each bedroom is equipped with two televisions and features a comfortable living area with a sofa which can be transformed in extra beds. Every bedroom is fully air-conditioned and has a minibar and kettles to enjoy a cup of tea or a cold drink.
