DESCRIPTION

At the entrance of the house, a floor to ceiling iron-pannelled fireplace connects the bedroom and living spaces. Glass walls are used inside, to create instantaneous feelings of space and togetherness. There are separate TV and living rooms, and a modern kitchen leading onto a dining area that features around table, meaning there is plenty of space for everyone to spread out.

The artwork on the walls is colourful and bold without being overwhelming, and this juxtaposes nicely with the pale wooden flooring. The bedroom suites all have their own incredible views out over the surrounding countryside, and the en-suite bathrooms feature his and hers sinks, and top-of-the-range showers. The bedrooms all have air-conditioning units, which can be adjusted to keep you warm or cool you down depending on the time of year. The combination of light, white and beige fabrics is ideal, and attracts even more light and clarity to spaces. Outdoors, a large aquamarine pool is positioned just metres from the house, with sunbeds for all the guests.

There is a barbecue on the terrace, and plenty of out-door seating areas for those nights when you want to eat dinner under the stars.
