DESCRIPTION

Contemporary Countryside Villa with Private Pool

This contemporary countryside villa offers stylish design, open-plan living, and a private pool set against peaceful rural surroundings. Designed for comfort and relaxation, this contemporary countryside villa combines striking architectural features with bright, spacious interiors, making it ideal for a luxury Algarve holiday.

At the entrance, a dramatic floor-to-ceiling iron-panelled fireplace creates a seamless connection between the bedroom and living spaces. In addition, interior glass walls enhance the sense of openness and allow natural light to flow throughout the property. As a result, the villa feels both modern and welcoming from the moment you arrive.

The layout includes a separate TV room and an elegant living room, so guests can enjoy both shared and private moments. Meanwhile, the modern kitchen opens directly onto the dining area, where a large table comfortably seats everyone. Therefore, the space is perfect for relaxed family meals or entertaining friends.

Stylish Interiors & Private Bedroom Suites

Throughout this contemporary countryside villa, bold and colourful artwork contrasts beautifully with pale wooden flooring. At the same time, soft white and beige fabrics enhance the light and airy atmosphere.

Each bedroom suite enjoys lovely countryside views. Furthermore, every en-suite bathroom features his-and-hers sinks and high-quality walk-in showers. Air-conditioning in every bedroom allows guests to personalise their comfort in every season.

Outdoor Living & Private Pool

Outside, the private aquamarine swimming pool sits just metres from the house. Sunbeds surround the pool, creating an inviting space to unwind in the Algarve sunshine. In addition, a barbecue and several outdoor seating areas provide the perfect setting for al fresco dining. As evening falls, you can enjoy peaceful countryside views and long dinners under the stars.
