DESCRIPTION

The modern, luxury rooms all have mountain views and can sleep up to 10 people, plus, with 3 extra kids bunks off the master suite the layout means that 3 families can stay with plenty of privacy. Each bedroom enjoys its own rain shower and facilities and lovely Cowshed toiletries to pamper yourself.

The decor reflects the things the owners of this property love - bright spacious rooms with beautiful artwork and plenty of places for kids of all ages to kick back and relax.

The kitchen, the heart of any home, at 'Vue Morzine', is spacious and open plan with double height ceilings and bathed with light from the floor to eaves windows, the extendable dining table seats ten adults comfortably while the breakfast bar is a popular perch for younger guests to enjoy snack and meals.

Two ovens, a dishwasher, two fridges and a freezer mean it's easy to cater for a full chalet of guests and the walk-in pantry is the perfect place to prepare and store food and keep the kitchen clutter free. Through a sliding door you access the large kitchen terrace where al fresco meals and drinks are framed by breathtaking open views over to the Pleney slopes and up and down the valley.

Tucked into the corner of the terrace is the Weber BBQ, conveniently placed next to another sliding window for easy passing of food to and from the BBQ chef!

Complete with squishy leather sofas and a roaring open fire, the lounge area is a fabulous place to relax after an active day in the mountains. The wall of sliding doors to the large outdoor terrace again frame what's arguably the best view in the valley.

Just above the sitting room on the other side is a door to another outdoor terrace - this one home to the hot tub and sundeck. Watch the sun slip down behind the imposing Roc D'Enfer whilst you enjoy your favourite tippie - one of the best ways to round off a day's skiing.

The bar is a favourite part of the chalet. Cut into the rock face with a bar area, table football and glass floor its a really funky place to have fun with friends.
