DESCRIPTION

ENTRANCE

The entrance to this refined mountain chalet, introduced by a traditional fence that is now unobtainable, is a wooden door of rare beauty. Every where soft fabrics, elegant environments, noble vaults and details of great care and relaxation...

STUBE

The typically alpine-style stube welcomes its guests in an enveloping embrace: the warmth of fir wood, the beautiful masonry stove, the bench that runs along the walls... an environment that reveals the aesthetic taste and creativity of Giorgia and Stefano, in a successful combination of design objects and traditional furnishings.

LIVING

Elegance, tradition and design of the furnishings make the exclusive spaces of the San Lorenzo Mountain Lodge unique, where you can treat yourself to moments of intimacy in front of a lit fireplace, wrapped in soft fabrics, in the relaxation of reading and rest, where time and space dilate.

ROOMS

Four bedrooms, one different from the other, all unique, some overlooking the valley, others towards the woods. Bright, quiet, romantic, with attention to every detail and simply beautiful. Treat yourself to unique moments, for an imperturbable sleep.

RELAX

Inside the chalet, the fire in the fireplace and the Tyrolean stove, the aromas of natural oils, the vapors and scents of nature hover and reach the guest to invite him to take a break from the frenetic rhythms and thoughts. After a walk in the woods where walking becomes light among the soft mosses under the green and restful fronds or on the blanket of snow, a herbal tea offers a moment of relaxation.

CELLAR

The outside of the lodge leads to what was once a small goat stable, with original stone walls and a wooden ceiling. Now it is a welcoming cellar, where you can taste a selected selection of wines, in the company of the owner, who will guide guests in the discovery of the typical aromas and flavors of the region.
