DESCRIPTION

Entering at street level, you're greeted by a spacious living and dining area that boasts comfortable sofas and an inviting four seater dining table. A charming breakfast nook, illuminated by natural light streaming through the terrace doors, leads you to the stunning, fully equipped kitchen. Two bedrooms are on the first floor: the master bedroom with a UK king bed (5ft wide) is served by an opulent ensuite bathroom with a shower stall. The second bedroom has a single bed (3ft wide) offering direct access to a tranquil roof terrace ideal for summer sundowners (May-September only). The second floor offers two bedrooms, one with a small double bed (4ft wide) and another with twin single beds (3ft wide). A sleek bathroom serves both bedrooms with a separate bath and shower. The home has a WC/cloakroom on the ground floor for added convenience.

The birthplace of the swinging Sixties, Chelsea is now the playground of the well-heeled. King’s Road is a stretch for treat-yourself shopping and long lunches – there are great bars and restaurants around here. Away from the main drag, find respite in Chelsea Physic Garden, the Saatchi Gallery or west along the river at interiors hotspot Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour.
