DESCRIPTION

Simply wandering down into this garden provides a chance to explore various viewpoints that are truly magical at any time of the day or night. A vision one can relish in full from the infinity-edge private swimming pool, tiled in a shade of blue specifically chosen to reflect that of the sea beyond.

Inside the house, wide bay windows ensure one can enjoy the show from inside, blurring the frontier between inside and outside. Accentuating the pervasive sense of continuity, the same white Tunisian stone adorns the outside terraces and the interior. This resolutely contemporary approach is also reflected in the pure, mineral-inspired decoration.
