DESCRIPTION

With thick stone walls, terracotta floors and 'country cottage' style decor, this charming property will transport you back in time to a quieter, more gentle pace of life - a truly relaxing and unforgettable holiday retreat. There are 1.5 hectares of terraced grounds with vines, wisteria, mature palm, lemon, orange, cypress and olive trees, and a large gravel terrace with a pergola dining area and an outdoor summer living room.

The small village of Cabris is a delight, perched high up on a hilltop with various restaurants and cafes, and festivals throughout the summer. The perfume capital of Grasse is nearby with an interesting pedestrianised old town and perfume factory museums open to the public. The Riviera coastline and large cosmopolitan town of Cannes are just 11 miles from this villa near Cabris in France.
