DESCRIPTION

The two-level home, which boasts total peace and privacy, opens onto a large outside terrace and garden with views of the sea and cloudless sky. Whether entertaining family or gathering with friends, you'll love the pergola-shaded lounge and open-air dining area. You can relax by the pool or explore the local area before visiting the villa's private path to the beach, where you can take a dip in the Aegean Sea.

On the ground floor of this grand villa, you'll find a comfortable living area if you feel you've had enough sun on the terrace. A gentle sea breeze will drift through your home if you pull back the flowing curtains to let natural sunlight stream in. Inside, you will find curved archways and rustic chic with prevailing wooden details that add to the house's character. Walls and furniture are adorned with tasteful decor and unique artwork. A colour palette that adds to the serene ambiance throughout the home; its windows and doors offer a peek at the soothing sea vistas outside.

Guests will discover unique island-themed decorations among the six beautifully-appointed bedrooms for a touch of nautical tradition. A newly renovated top-of-the-range kitchen and a comfortable lounge have direct access through balcony doors to the terrace and pool. An independent master bedroom suite (7th bedroom) with a private entrance dressed in leather and wood touches contrasting the all-white walls and seating can be used on request.

Villa Barnacle offers everything you need for a relaxing break in style, but there are plenty of things to do in the immediate area. In less than 100 meters away is a water sports facility and a beach bar. Skiathos Port is less than 4 mins away from the villa, making arrivals and departures an absolute breeze. Visit your private balcony to soak in the stunning hues of the sunset, bronze golden light brightening the vast horizon after a day exploring the island.
