DESCRIPTION

A large heated swimming pool is flanked by sun loungers and parasols, providing space to enjoy a cocktail from the poolside bar whilst taking in the stunning surroundings. Next to the pool is a manicured lawn with large, canopy-draped daybeds for those seeking respite from the sun and a fire pit for cooler evenings.

Throughout the grounds are plenty more spaces for outdoor living and dining. These include several furnished terraces, a cobbled courtyard decked out with comfortable seating, and a nomad camp at the top of the farm – perfect for picnics overlooking the property.

Active guests will enjoy the fully-equipped outdoor gym, lawned volleyball court, boules pitch, terrace for yoga or Pilates, hiking trails, and horse paddock.

The villa focuses on sustainability with the estate's organic vegetable gardens, fruit orchards and olive plantations supplying the kitchen, electricity generated by the on-site solar park, and rain and wastewater recycled for irrigation. Moreover, most of the property's furniture and soft furnishings are made from natural materials.

Indoors, an eclectic mix of furniture and art pieces collected from years of world travel fill the rooms. A cosy lounge offers space for relaxation, whilst a converted olive press room provides an elegant dining room with high ceilings and statement furnishings for a unique atmosphere.

There is also a cinema room for movie nights, a playroom for younger children, and a study for quiet reading. Moreover, the villa is perfect for corporate retreats with its conference room with a projector screen and plenty of quiet meeting spaces available.

The private chef prepares all meals in the modern, open-plan kitchen, plus there is a self-service bar for guests to access at their leisure.

Guests can also experience true relaxation in the spa area with its sauna, hammam, and massage and treatment room.

Across the two floors are ten well-appointed bedrooms. Each bedroom features a king-size bed – converted to twins where needed – and an en-suite shower room.

With its expansive grounds, spacious interiors, and high-end facilities, Villa Historia is the perfect location for a luxury holiday with loved ones or a memorable corporate retreat.
