Villa Evgenia

Villa Evgenia lies high in Santorini's capital, Fira, an area rich in history of which the mansion is an integral part. With its panoramic view of the famous caldera basin formed by the collapse of an ancient volcano, this is a place for quiet reflection. The extraordinary light created in this wonder of nature has inspired generations of travelers.

DESCRIPTION

With its typical white rendered buildings contrasting the stark volcanic rock and the azure blue of the sea in the Cyclades islands, it is hardly surprising that Santorini has become one of the most photographed holiday destinations in the Greek Islands.

This self-contained luxury holiday villa accommodates up to eight people in a total of four double bedrooms.

Villa Evgenia comprises the main house (three double bedrooms), plus a studio (one double bedroom). Each has its own private entrance.

Villa Evgenia provides a perfect blend of Greek island living: privacy and home comforts amid an authentic example of daily village life.
