DESCRIPTION

It offers a unique sense of silence and independence because of its solo location. It is a flat villa which features five bedrooms and can accommodate up to 10 guests. Its great pool terrace offers an amazing atmosphere as well as relaxing moments all day long.

This stunning standalone villa consists of two levels.

On the ground floor, there is a cozy living area with magnificent and relaxing view to the sea. In modern and fresh lines, the kitchen area has its own entrance that leads you towards the pool terrace. Wooden decoration with white being the principal color and a bench - island, offers an optimal use of the total pantry area.

On the same level, there are 3 bedrooms with bathrooms, 2 bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms and 1 bedroom with private bathroom. The use of stone walls and the white color offer a peaceful scenery for relaxation.

On the first floor, a double en suite delightful and spacy bedroom offers a private veranda with a higher level of sea view. All the ground floor rooms offer direct access to the pool area.

The outdoor offers an exclusive use of the private pool with a spectacular sea view, different spots of relaxation and a wide dining table as the main spot of meeting all together. Elements of decoration follow the Cycladic patterns.

In a small distance from Villa Delia, the residence offers one independent guesthouse fully equipped, surrounded by gardens, accessed through small promenades. There is also one more guesthouse in the premises which serves the in-house keeper.
