DESCRIPTION

Set in approximately two acres of landscaped gardens at the foot of La Concha Mountain, the villa has a peaceful ambience, and yet is only a 5 - 10 minute drive from Marbella and Puerto Banus.

Built in 2010 to the most demanding of standards, and further updated in 2024, this contemporary villa has the space and amenities more usually associated with a luxury hotel rather than a private residence. The spacious entrance lobby is furnished with original works of art and gives one a taste of the refined luxury and elegance that defines Villa Remiro. Laid out over three levels, there are five ultra generous bedroom suites in the main villa. The master bedroom boasts outstanding sea views and the master bathroom contains a ceramic bath large enough for six people. There are two separate lounges on the ground floor, with the master being furnished in contemporary white throughout. The ground floor also contains an exceptionally equipped and designed kitchen, dining room, utility rooms, and office. The sixth bedroom suite is located in the adjacent guest apartment.

The basement area contains a heated indoor pool and plunge pool, a gymnasium, home cinema, bar and poker room, sauna, Turkish sauna, massage room and garages for 13 cars.

There is an internal elevator linking all three floors. Externally the grounds contain two swimming pools, one with a cascading waterfall effect, a chiringuito and a barbecue area; all set within a superb landscaped, private and tranquil environment. Villa Remiro is an exceptional property situated in the most sought after of locations.

Please Note: due to the residential neighbourhood with a low noise covenant, no late parties or loud noises permitted after 10.00 p.m
