Villa Maiara

Found in one of the most laid-back and luscious parts of Bali i.e. Uluwatu along the southwestern coast, Villa Maiara is a luxury villa with split-level architecture that reminds one of the rice fields of Bali. The sprawling villa is perched on a cliff with spectacular views of the Indian Ocean and the neighbouring bursts of luscious, tropical flora. The villa accommodates five bedrooms that are gracious and well-designed, vast open-plan living areas as well as more than one swimming pool for the most wonderful holiday with friends and family.

DESCRIPTION

The multi-storied Villa Maiara accommodate five, splendid bedrooms over two floors. Each of these bedrooms is adjoined to a terrace or balcony with seating that offers unparalleled views of the Indian Ocean. Spacious, air-conditioned and well-furnished, the bedrooms have king-sized beds for the most comfortable sleep. There are separate lounge areas with a plush couch and flat-screen TV in each of the bedrooms for a private space to relax.

Each bedroom comes with a minibar and tea/coffee making facility so that guests can enjoy their morning coffee on the pleasant terrace with wonderful views. Ensuite bathrooms are fitted with modern, efficient facilities and one of them even has a private Jacuzzi that leads to a private swimming pool for the most luxurious experience of your life.

As the ocean waves crash on the rocky shores, lie back in restful slumber to relish the utterly peaceful ambiance of Uluwatu. Designed as a rice terrace, Villa Maiara features two private swimming pools, both with infinity pool edges, that offer spectacular and unmatched views of the ocean and neighbouring cliffs. When the sun settles over the island, prepare for mesmerising spectacles of nature as the once blue sky is awash with dazzling golden hues.

Luscious, well-landscaped gardens are found both at the front and back of the villa with tropical flora thriving under the warm sun. Sunbeds, alfresco dining and outdoor seating is plenty around the property so guests can make the most of their surroundings.

Since Villa Maiara is housed on a sprawling property, there is not one but several living and shared spaces to give you ample room where you can kick back with a glass of wine. The villa has been designed in true Balinese style featuring high-vaulted along-along ceilings, antique wooden doors and whitewashed interiors. The gardens only add to the charming aura of the villa. Stunning artwork with panel art and wooden wall features are some of the tasteful accents in these spaces.

Apart from the open concept living spaces that allows guests to enjoy constant fresh air and amazing ocean views, Villa Maiara takes care to provide you with a space where you can eat together with your loved ones. Found adjacent to the garden and sunbeds is the dining area with a rustic wooden table and ample seating. You even have access to the fully-equipped, modern kitchen fitted with state of the art appliances such as the in-built microwave/oven, island counter and a BBQ grill.

Villa Maiara although designed in a truly Balinese destination surrounded by nothing but the ocean takes care to deliver modern conveniences to its guests. From free WIFI to international TV channels, safety deposit boxes to air-conditioned, the villa has everything covered. Amenities that you can enjoy at an additional cost include laundry, massages, airport transfers and a private chef who can even teach you to make some local dishes.

The villa is essentially in a spot which has several other luxury resorts and provides you with a serene and removed destination to enjoy a more peaceful vacation. There are many beaches in the area that you can visit like Pandawa beach, Dreamland beach or the stunning Green Bowl beach. For splendid sunsets, head over to Uluwatu temple that is perched on a cliff.
